

The Ballet Nacional de España presents Invocación at the 23rd New York and Miami Flamenco Festival

The Ballet Nacional de España returns to the Flamenco Festival for the first time since its last appearance in 2018

As part of the Festival, the Hispanic Society of America will host an event featuring the Ballet Nacional de España as part of the closing celebrations for the Sorolla Centenary

Madrid, 27th February 2024. The Ballet Nacional de España begins its international touring programme for the year with performances in the United States: in Miami on 1st, 2nd and 3rd March, and in New York on 8th, 9th and 10th March, as part of the 23rd New York and Miami Flamenco Festival.

On this occasion, the Ballet Nacional de España will present Invocación at the Flamenco Festival, a programme devised by Rubén Olmo that showcases the dancers' versatility and technical command of three Spanish dance disciplines: flamenco, stylised dance and escuela bolera. The production also includes a tribute to dancer and choreographer Mario Maya, one of the great masters of Spanish dance.

In Rubén Olmo's words, it is a highly comprehensive programme "in which audiences can enjoy flamenco brimming with life and power on stage, a ballet rooted in the purest form of stylised dance and one of the few recent choreographies created in the escuela bolera tradition".

The programme opens with Invocación bolera, choreographed by Olmo himself. The work brings the essence of traditional escuela bolera into the present day and pays tribute to the great masters who shaped the discipline. Escuela bolera is one of the most demanding forms of Spanish dance, requiring mastery of classical ballet, and is also one of the most spectacular due to the speed of its steps and jumps. The contemporary score was composed especially for the work by the young Seville-born composer and conductor Manuel Busto. The costumes, designed by Pedro Moreno, have been recovered from the Ballet's archives and adapted for this work by the designer himself.

Jauleña, meanwhile, was conceived by Rubén Olmo as a transitional solo that blends stylised dance, escuela bolera and flamenco, with a particular emphasis on the granaína and zapateado. The music is also by Manuel Busto.

The first half of the programme concludes with Antonio Najarro's Eterna Iberia, a choreography that brings together the use of castanets, the Spanish cape and the Cordoban hat, alongside the technique and expressive power so characteristic of Spanish stylised dance. For the work, the company wears costumes in the colours of earth and sea designed by Yaiza Pinillos.

The second half of the programme is devoted to De lo flamenco. Homenaje a Mario Maya, through which the Ballet Nacional de España pays tribute to dancer and choreographer Mario Maya (1937–2008), a flamenco legend whose work had not previously featured in the company's repertoire.

Comprising seven movements, the work is conceived as a flamenco suite that reflects Mario Maya's distinctive and innovative style. In 1994, he founded the Compañía Andaluza de Danza, now known as the Ballet Flamenco de Andalucía.

To conclude the programme, and in celebration of Paco de Lucía during this edition of the Festival, the company will perform Almoraima, choreographed by Mario Maya and Rubén Olmo to music by Paco de Lucía.

Invocación premiered in 2020 at the Teatro Villamarta in Jerez de la Frontera, Cádiz. Since then, the Ballet Nacional de España has performed it throughout Spain in cities including Madrid, Valencia, Santander and Granada, as well as internationally in Saint Petersburg, Dubai, Athens, Mexico City and Tel Aviv, among others.

Spanish Art and Dance at the Hispanic Society of America

Spanish art and dance will come together during this edition of the Flamenco Festival in New York through a collaboration with the Hispanic Society of America. The event will take place in the gallery housing a series of fourteen paintings that make up one of the most magnificent collections by Valencian painter Joaquín Sorolla y Bastida: Vision of Spain, also known as The Regions of Spain.

At the event, to be held on 6th March, Ballet Nacional de España director Rubén Olmo will dance alongside guitarist Rafael Riqueni, who will perform Amarguras in front of the painting 'Seville. The Penitents'. Ballet Nacional de España soloist Estela Alonso will also perform La Valenciana in front of another work from the collection, 'Valencia. The Horsemen'. The piece was choreographed by Juanjo Linares and Maribel Gallardo to music by Eliseo Parra.

Through this participation, the Ballet Nacional de España, in collaboration with the Flamenco Festival and the Hispanic Society of America, will take part in the closing events of the Sorolla Centenary, which have been held since last year.

INVOCACIÓN Ballet Nacional de España

Programme:

Invocación bolera, by Rubén Olmo

Jauleña, by Rubén Olmo

Eterna Iberia, by Antonio Najarro

De lo flamenco. Homenaje a Mario Maya, by Mario Maya, Milagros Menjíbar,
A. Rueda "Toná", Manolo Marín, Isabel Bayón and Rafaela Carrasco

Almoraima, by Mario Maya and Rubén Olmo

United States

Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts, Miami

Ziff Opera House

1st and 2nd March 2024, 8:00 p.m.

3rd March 2024, 3:00 p.m.

Tickets:

<https://www.arshtcenter.org/tickets/2023-2024/dance-at-arsht/flamenco-festival-miami-xv/ballet-nacional-de-espana/>

New York City Center, New York

8th March 2024, 7:30 p.m.

9th March 2024, 3:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

10th March 2024, 3:00 p.m.

Tickets:

<https://www.nycitycenter.org/pdps/2023-2024/flamenco-festival/>

The Hispanic Society Museum, New York

Amarguras, by Rubén Olmo

La Valenciana, by Juanjo Linares and Maribel Gallardo

6th March 2024, 6:30 p.m.

About the Ballet Nacional de España

The Ballet Nacional de España (BNE) has been Spain's leading public company for Spanish dance since it was founded in 1978 under the name Ballet Nacional Español, with Antonio Gades as its first director. It is one of the production units of the National Institute of the Performing Arts and Music (INAEM), which forms part of the Ministry of Culture and Sport. The BNE's mission is to preserve, promote and pass on Spain's rich choreographic heritage, embracing its stylistic diversity and traditions through its different forms: classical dance, stylised dance, folklore, escuela bolera and flamenco. It also works to bring Spanish dance closer to new audiences and strengthen its national and international profile within a framework of full artistic and creative autonomy.

Rubén Olmo, director of the Ballet Nacional de España

Rubén Olmo, winner of the 2015 National Dance Award, joined the Ballet Nacional de España in September 2019 with the aim of preserving, promoting and expanding the reach of the traditional Spanish Dance repertoire, while also incorporating new creations and opening the company to avant-garde approaches and experimentation. This marks his second period with the BNE, having previously danced with the company from 1998 to 2002.

From 2011, he served as director of the Ballet Flamenco de Andalucía, an institution belonging to the Regional Government of Andalusia, where he premiered his own productions, including Llanto por Ignacio Sánchez Mejías and La muerte de un minotauro. Before that, he founded his own company, for which he created productions such as Érase una vez, Belmonte, Las tentaciones de Poe, Horas contigo, Naturalmente Flamenco and Diálogo de Navegante. He has also worked as a choreographer and dancer with leading figures in Spanish Dance, including Aída Gómez, Antonio Najarro, Eva Yerbabuena, Víctor Ullate, Antonio Canales, Rafael Amargo, Isabel Bayón and Rafaela Carrasco.

Download high-resolution images:

<https://balletnacional.mcu.es/es/sala-de-prensa/>

Further information and interview requests:

Eduardo Villar de Cantos
Communications Director
Ballet Nacional de España
Tel. 91 05 05 052 / 611 60 92 44
eduardo.villar@inaem.cultura.gob.es